

Financing mechanisms for promoting social inclusion in skills and lifelong learning systems

Global overview of current practices and policy options (published in 2023)

The report analyses pros and cons of practices around the world, shedding light on the policy options to improve access to and participation in skills development and lifelong learning of disadvantaged individuals.

